

ANNUAL REPORT
Calendar Year 2014
OF THE
BALTIMORE CITY BOARD OF ETHICS

INTRODUCTION

This report is designed to provide the Mayor, Board of Estimates, City Council, all employees of Baltimore City, and the general public with information about the activities of the Baltimore City Board of Ethics for calendar year 2014.

This is the fifth Annual Report prepared by the Ethics Board. General information regarding the history, purpose, goals, procedures, staffing and members of the Board is provided.

The Ethics Board and its administrators are pleased to submit this report about the work that they have been asked to undertake. The Board looks forward to addressing any questions or suggestions that might arise following review.

HISTORY OF THE BOARD OF ETHICS

The Baltimore City Board of Ethics was established in 1963 by an amendment to the Baltimore City Charter. The purpose was to enforce certain new prohibitions against conflicts of interest. Financial disclosure requirements were added in 1974.

In 1981, the State of Maryland enacted the comprehensive “Maryland Public Ethics Law”. Among other things; the new law mandated that each local jurisdiction adopt its own local ethics laws. The local laws were required to be “similar” or “substantially similar” to the Maryland ethics law. Accordingly, the Baltimore City Charter and the Baltimore City Code were revised and expanded to comply with the State law.

In 2004, the Baltimore City ethics law was again comprehensively revised. Ordinance 04-795 (“Ethics – Raising the Bar”) extensively expanded upon, clarified and updated its provisions. The revised Ethics Law became effective in 2005 and, for the most part, remains effective today.

In 2010, two major changes to the Ethics Law were enacted. Ordinance 10-267 {“Public Ethics Law –Clarifications and Expanded Coverage”} clarified certain terms applicable to prohibited acts, to required disclosures, and to other ethics regulation; it further clarified and expanded the scope of those to whom certain prohibitions apply. Ordinance 10-272 {“Public Ethics Law – Ethics Board Composition, Tenure, etc. – Ethics Training”} reconstituted the five-member Board to one member nominated by the President of the City Council, one member nominated by the City Comptroller, and three members named by the Mayor two of whom must be members of the Maryland Bar. The amendment also clarified the basic qualifications for all Board members and established staggered 5-year terms of office. Finally, the Ordinance further expanded the list of officials required to attend training, required the Board to submit an Annual Report of its activities, and to submit as appropriate, special reports with recommendations for legislation.

In 2011, the Maryland General Assembly amended the State Ethics Law to require that all local ethics laws, as applied to local elected officials, must be “equivalent to or exceed” the comparable requirements of state law, as applicable to state officials.. Accordingly, Ordinance 11-484 {“Public Ethics Law – Compliance with State Requirements”} was introduced and enacted to bring the City Ethics Law into compliance with the state law. The major changes included a revised definition of “insignificant” and “significant” gifts, imposed new restrictions on elected officials after their departure from office, prohibited certain employment interests, and newly required elected officials to disclose any employment or other interests that might raise even a potential conflict of interest.

PURPOSE, GOALS AND DUTIES OF THE BOARD OF ETHICS

The Baltimore City Ethics Law is intended to “guard against improper influence or even the appearance of improper influence and to ensure public trust in the government”. The Ethics Law accomplishes this goal by:

- Setting ethical standards for the conduct of all Baltimore City officials and employees so as to prevent a conflict of interest or the appearance of one;
- Requiring Baltimore City officials and high-level employees, within 6 months of appointment, to undertake formal training in the requisites of the Ethics Law and to sign and to submit a “Conflicts Affidavit”;
- Requiring Baltimore City officials, specified employees, and specified members of City boards and commissions to file annual financial disclosure statements that are certified and open to the public;
- Requiring legislative and executive branch lobbyists to file registration statements and periodic activity reports, open to public inspection.

The Ethics Board also:

- Issues advisory opinions on questions about the Ethics Law;
- Grants exemptions from certain provisions of the Ethics Law under appropriate circumstances;
- Investigates alleged violations of the Ethics Law; and
- Enforces compliance with the Ethics Law.

The Ethics Board does not:

- Prosecute criminal conduct. However, criminal conduct discovered by the Ethics Board during its investigation of a complaint may be referred to the appropriate prosecuting authority for handling; or
- Administer personnel matters or seek to resolve personnel conflicts.

MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF ETHICS

The Baltimore City Board of Ethics currently consists of five unsalaried, non-compensated members. Members must be “of known personal integrity” and must possess “recognized knowledge and interest in government and civics.” The Board selected Linda B. Pierson as Chair and Dawna M. Cobb as Recording Secretary.

Name	Party	Officer	Origin and Term
Linda B. Pierson	Republican	Chair	Mayor Rawlings-Blake Appointee Term Expires 12/31/2018
Dawna M. Cobb	Democrat	Recording Secretary	Mayor Rawlings-Blake Appointee Term Expires 12/31/2016
Guy E. Flynn	Democrat		Mayor Rawlings-Blake Appointee Term Expires 12/31/2017
Jennifer Burdick	Democrat		President of the City Council Nominee, Term Expires 12/31/2015
Alicia Wilson	Democrat		City Comptroller Nominee Term Expires 12/31/2014

MEETINGS OF THE ETHICS BOARD All in-person meetings were held in the Offices of Legislative Reference on the 6th floor of City Hall. As required, advance notice of meetings and the possibility of closed sessions were given to the public and media. All decisions of the Board are reflected in the Minutes of the monthly meetings and are available on the Ethics Board’s website.

Generally, agenda topics included receipt of updates of ongoing investigations, consideration of exemptions from solicitation rules, informal and formal requests for opinions on the application of Ethics laws and regulations, and consideration of legislation affecting the administration and scope of the Ethics Law.

ETHICS BOARD ADMINISTRATION

The Baltimore City Ethics Code provides that the Director of the Baltimore City Department of Legislative Reference shall also serve as the Executive Director of the Ethics Board. Avery Aisenstark, Esquire, serves this dual role.

With the assistance of the City's Information Technology Department, the Department of Legislative Reference staff also maintains the Ethics Board website and updates the site as needed and appropriate. The new Board expanded the information available to include the Minutes of Meetings and copies of Opinions.

Additional support is provided by Thaddeus Watulak, Esq., Deputy Ethics Director, and Anita Evans, Registrar, both seconded from the Department of Legislative Reference. From time to time the Board receives assistance from the Office of the City Solicitor and the Inspector General's Office. Mr. Aisenstark, Mr. Watulak, and Ms. Evans can be reached at 410-396-4730.

GOVERNMENTAL/CHARITABLE SOLICITATIONS

Article 8, § 6-26, "Gifts: Solicitation prohibited," generally prohibits any public servants from soliciting or facilitating the solicitation of a gift, "whether on the public servant's own behalf or on behalf of another person," from any person that the public servant "knows or has reason to know" is a controlled donor. Article 8, § 6-27, "Gifts: Acceptance prohibited," further prohibits any public servant from accepting a gift, even if unsolicited, from any person that the public servant "knows or has reason to know" is a controlled donor.

These prohibitions have long been recognized to apply even if the "gift" is being solicited to support a governmental function or charitable endeavor. An exception was created to permit certain solicitations that are "for the benefit of an official governmental program or activity of a City-endorsed charitable function or activity "and have been pre-approved by the Ethics Board and endorsed by the Board of Estimates or its designee.

Implementing regulations were adopted, effective on March 1, 2010. In brief, the regulations require prior approval before charitable solicitations are begun, confirmation that the proposed solicitation is for a bona fide public purpose, identification of the amount to be solicited and of the persons and businesses that will be solicited, periodic reporting on the progress of the solicitation, and a final report on the outcome of the solicitation. (The text of these and all other regulations are appended to the Ethics Code posted on-line.)

In December 2014 the Board reviewed the Charitable Solicitation Application Form. The review considered whether the regulations and the form should be changed to reflect different reporting time frames depending on the amount of funds to be raised by the solicitation. After review the Board adopted changes to the form and accompanying regulation revisions.

In 2014, the Board received and approved 18 applications for governmental/charitable solicitations. A complete list of these solicitation requests can be found in Appendix 1.

EDUCATION AND TRAINING COURSES

Pursuant to Ethics Law Section 3-20, the Ethics Board must develop and offer a training course on the requirements of the City Ethics Law. Every “official” must complete the training course within six months of appointment or reappointment to office.

An individual who is appointed to fill a vacancy in a position must be given written notice of the requirements related to (i) filing an entry financial disclosure statement, (ii) taking a training course, and (iii) submitting a conflicts affidavit. The Mayor or the Mayor’s designee must give notice to uncompensated appointees of the Mayor. For all other appointees, the notice must be given by the Director of Human Resources or the Director's designee.

Semiannually, the Ethics Board schedules a round of training courses and notifies all City officials and employees of that schedule. In that way, new appointees will have several opportunities to comply within their first 6 months.

During Calendar Year 2014:

23 training sessions were held.

More than 202 Individuals completed the training.

Approximately 90 hours of staff time were expended to provide this training

LOBBYING

Lobbying activities are governed by Subtitle 8 of the Ethics Law and fall into the following categories.

Legislative Lobbying - A person must register as a lobbyist if, during a reporting period, the person, for the purpose of influencing any legislative action, communicates with a public servant and, spends $100 or more for gifts, including meals, beverages or special events, incurs any expenses of $500 or more or, earns $2,500 or more in compensation.

Executive Lobbying – In general, a person must register as a lobbyist if, during a reporting period the person, for the purpose of influencing any executive action, communicates with a public servant and in connection with that communication spends $100 or more for gifts, including meals, beverages or special events.

Lobbying Related to Executive Orders – With respect to influencing the development, adoption, issuance or amendment of regulations or of an executive order, a person must register if during a reporting period the person communicates with a public servant regarding the executive order and in furtherance of that communication spends $100 or more for gifts, including meals, beverages or special events, incurs any expenses of $500 or more or, earns $2,500 or more in compensation.

Lobbying Related to Procurement Matters – A person must register as a lobbyist if, during a reporting period the person, for the purpose of influencing executive action on a procurement contract that exceeds $50,000, communicates with a public servant and spends $100 or more for gifts, including meals, beverages or special events or, is compensated for his or her services. Bona fide in-house salespersons are excepted so long as they engage in no other act during the reporting period that requires registration.

Lobbying Related to Business Grants or Loans – A person must register as a lobbyist if, during a reporting period the person, for the purpose of influencing executive action to secure for a business entity a grant or loan that exceeds $50,000, communicates with a public servant and spends $100 or more for gifts, including meals, beverages or special events to one or more public servants or, is compensated for his or her services. A bona fide full-time official or employee of a business entity that is seeking to secure a grant or loan or a person seeking a grant or loan for the purpose of locating, relocating or expanding a business in or into the City of Baltimore is excepted.

Grass Roots Lobbying – A person must register as a lobbyist if, during a reporting period the person, for the purpose of influencing any legislative or executive action solicits others to communicate with a public servant and spends $1,000 or more, including expenditures for salaries, contractual employees, postage, telecommunications services, electronic services, advertising, printing, or delivery services.

During 2013 and 2014 the Ethics Board discussed Procurement Lobbying. Comments were received from the City Solicitor’s Office and members of the bar who represent businesses before the Board of Estimates. As a result of these discussions and comments, revised regulations were adopted and became effective January 1, 2015.

The Ethics Law requires a lobbyist to register annually, within 5 days after first engaging in any act that requires registration. Lobbyists are also required to file activity reports on an annual basis. Activity reports must include, among other information, the total compensation paid to the lobbyist in connection with lobbying activities, office expenses incurred, gift expenses incurred and, expenses related to publications, witnesses, and research. Activity reports must also include the name of each public servant and qualifying relative of a public servant to or for whom the lobbyist or any person on the lobbyist’s behalf has given one or more gifts with a cumulative value of $150 or more, whether or not given in connection with lobbying activities.

A list of lobbyists registered with the Ethics Board in 2014, and their clients, can be found in Appendix 4. The list for the current year is available from Anita Evans, Registrar, Department of Legislative Reference.

FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE STATEMENTS

The Ethics Board is charged with the responsibility of processing financial disclosure forms from elected officials, agency heads, select employees, candidates for office, and members of City boards and commissions. The categories of persons who are required to file financial disclosure forms are found at Sections 7-6 to 7-14 of the Ethics Law. The Board estimates that over 2,000 people file these forms each year.

Financial disclosure forms are due on or before April 30 of each year covering the calendar year immediately preceding the filing. A fine is authorized for late filings, up to a maximum of $250 per late filing.

All financial disclosure statements are available for public inspection at the office of the Department of Legislative Reference. Contact Anita Evans, Department of Legislative Reference, City Hall, 100 N. Holliday Street, Baltimore, Maryland 21202. 410-396-4730.

Under Section 7-1(d), the Finance Director must annually certify to the Ethics Board a list of all business entities “doing business” with the City. The Ethics Board is required to keep this list on file and available to all persons subject to the financial disclosure requirements. However, the Finance Department has failed to consistently provide this list.

In 2013 the Ethics Board met with Mayor’s Office of Information Technology (MOIT) to develop online Financial Disclosure Forms. Progress was made and the forms were tested and put into use for the first time in 2014. Agency Coordinators received training in the new system. Approximately 60% of the required filers used the on-line form.

LEGISLATIVE AND REGULATION MATTERS

The Ethics Board becomes involved in legislative and regulation matters primarily when it is considering regulations to clarify or otherwise implement its statutory powers and duties, when it is proposing new legislation to amend the Ethics Law, or when the City Council refers bills sponsored by others to the Board for its review and recommendations. In 2013, the Ethics Board engaged in all these activities.

ETHICS INQUIRIES

The Ethics Board receives numerous daily ethics inquiries from elected and appointed officials, members of Baltimore's boards and commissions, Baltimore City employees, members of the public, members of the media, local agencies, and private business entities. The Ethics Board's staff frequently handles simple ethics questions and requests for information. Often, the Board's Executive Director, Avery Aisenstark or Deputy Ethics Director, Thaddeus Watulak, responded in person, by telephone or e-mail to questions with clear or easily ascertainable answers and with no need for Board involvement. These kinds of inquiries are not generally documented and they are not summarized in this report.

Section 4-1(a) of the Ethics Law provides that "at the written request of a person who is subject to this article, the Ethics Board must provide an advisory opinion, in a timely fashion, on the article's application to that person under the circumstances described in the request." Inquiries submitted on behalf of persons who are not subject to the ethics laws may be responded to with an advisory opinion. In 2014, every written request for an advisory opinion was considered by the entire Ethics Board, excepting those Board members who recused themselves due to a real or perceived conflict of interest.

ADVISORY OPINIONS AND WRITTEN DECISIONS ISSUED

All written advisory opinions, with the name of the inquirer redacted, are made available to the public. In 2014, one formal opinion was issued. The full text of each opinion is available on the Ethics Board Website or through the Department of Legislative Reference. Contact Anita Evans, Department of Legislative Reference, City Hall, 100 N. Holliday Street, Baltimore, Maryland 21202. Ms. Evans can also be contacted by telephone at 410-396-4730.

Besides the formal opinion issued in 2014, the Ethics Board responded to four other written requests for advice in 2014. Each inquiry generated a written response. A summary of each inquiry and the Board's response can be found in Appendix 2.

COMPLAINTS

The Baltimore City Ethics Law specifies the process and procedure for making and responding to complaints of a violation of the law.

Any person may file a complaint with the Ethics Board alleging a violation of the ethics laws. Complaints must be in writing, under oath and signed by the complainant. The Ethics Board itself can issue a written complaint alleging a violation of the ethics laws. Once a complaint is received, the Board's Executive Director must promptly send a copy of the complaint to the respondent. If a complaint made by a person or entity other than the Ethics Board, the complainant's name and any other information identifying the complainant must be redacted.

The Executive Director is required to promptly investigate a complaint. Findings are then reported to the Ethics Board. If the Ethics Board determines that the facts do not merit further proceedings the Board must dismiss the complaint and notify the complainant and respondent of this determination.

If the investigation discloses a prima facie violation the Executive Director must notify the respondent of this and, provide the respondent with an opportunity to cure the violation. If the respondent cures the violation within 15 days and the Ethics Board finds that a dismissal would not be contrary to the purposes of the Ethics Law, the complaint may be dismissed. The respondent and the complainant are then notified of the decision to dismiss the complaint.

If a complaint is not dismissed, the Ethics Board must provide the respondent with notice and an opportunity for a hearing before the Board. The respondent is entitled to be represented by counsel. After all of the evidence has been presented the Ethics Board must make written findings of fact and conclusions of law as to each alleged violation.

Alternatively, if the Ethics Board determines that the respondent has not violated the Ethics Law, the Board must dismiss the complaint and promptly notify the complainant and the respondent of the dismissal.

If the Ethics Board determines that the respondent has violated any provision of the Ethics Laws the Board may take one or more of the following authorized enforcement actions. Actions include:

- Issuing an order directing the respondent to cease and desist from the violation
- Issuing a reprimand
- Referring the matter to the appropriate official or authority for other disciplinary action authorized by law, including censure or removal
- Seeking judicial relief or other enforcement action
- Requiring a respondent who is a lobbyist to file any additional reports or information
- Imposing a $1,000 civil penalty for each violation related to a respondent who is a lobbyist

- Referring the matter to the appropriate prosecuting authority if there are reasonable grounds to believe that the respondent has committed a criminal offense

Respondents can seek judicial review of a decision of the Ethics Board by petitioning the Circuit Court for Baltimore City. A party to that judicial review may appeal the Circuit Court's final judgment to the Court of Special Appeals.

Once a complaint is made, the proceedings, meetings, and activities of the Ethics Board and its staff relating to the complaint are confidential. Neither the Ethics Board nor its staff may disclose any information relating to the complaint, including the identity of the complainant or the respondent.

The Commission received four new complaints of possible ethics violation in 2014. Appendix 3 provides a summary of these and other continuing complaints.

Appendix 2 - Opinion Requests

May 2013 – The Ethics Board received a request for an opinion on the application of Article 22, Section 5(b) (5) (ii) regarding reimbursement for travel to conferences, seminar or similar meeting or for related food, travel, lodging, or entertainment, etc. with regard to the activities of a particular City agency. In July 2014, The Ethics Board clarified the applicability of Article 22, §5(b)(5)(ii)(3)(A) to various meetings. Since §5(b)(5)(ii)(3)(A) doesn't apply to an Advisory Board meeting where a representative actually conducts business as part of the Advisory Board in an oversight role, rather than merely receiving marketing or educational presentations, the Ethics Board sees no reason why personnel cannot be reimbursed for reasonable expenses in attending those meetings. However, the Ethics Board did not feel that attendance at other, non-participatory meetings, would be appropriate for reimbursement from the sponsoring organizations.

September 2013 – The Ethics Board received a request for an opinion on whether lawyers representing companies before the Board of Estimates are or should be registered as lobbyists. The Ethics Board began a review of the issue by contacting participating lawyers and requesting their position on the question. The Board further directed staff to research how other jurisdictions have addressed this issue. In July 2014 the Ethics Board did approve modifications to the regulations related to this issue.

On April 8, 2014 Ethics Opinion 14-001 was issued discussing when providing a reference to a contractor is a violation of Ethics Code §6-36 and providing guidance on how and when a reference letter may be issued to avoid violations.

July 2014 – The Board received a request from the Journey Home about whether it is subject to the City's Ethics Code. The issues before the Board were (1) whether the Journey Home's Board members were subject to the financial disclosure requirement, and (2) whether Journey Home personnel were required to attend ethics trainings. The Board voted 4-0 to advise Journey Home that: (1) it is a City entity subject to the Ethics Code, (2) therefore its board members and senior personnel are required to attend ethics trainings, but (3) its board members are not subject to the financial disclosure requirement because it not listed in the Ethics Law as an entity required to file a financial disclosure.

October 2014 – The Board was informed that elected officials were being challenged to participate in the ALS Ice Bucket challenge. The Board agreed that while City officials could accept the challenge, they should avoid challenging subordinates, City contractors, or those subject to City regulation or it could appear to be the use of prestige of office in violation of the Ethics Code.

Appendix 3 – Complaints

November 2012 – A complaint was filed alleging that a public official requested and received a gift of free legal services. The Board reviewed and considered several avenues to proceed on this matter. The complaint continues to be reviewed and investigated. In 2014 The Board requested that the Inspector General to investigate the matter. The investigation was not concluded in 2014.

September 2013 – The Ethics Board received a complaint regarding a city official who is alleged to have provided written recommendations for a city contractor. The Ethics Board staff requested an investigation by the Inspector General’s office on the matter. It was determined that the City Official had written an endorsement letter for the contractor. As a result of this investigation, the Board felt the issue needed a formal Response. On April 8, 2014 Ethics Opinion 14-001 was issued which held that the providing a reference to a contractor did violate §6-36 of the Code. However, the Opinion also provided guidance on how and when a reference letter may be provided. Visit the Ethics Board website for the full text of the Opinion.

September 2013 – A complaint was filed alleging that a change in the language of the procurement process was intended to mislead potential bidders. After an investigation by the Inspector General, the complaint was unsubstantiated and therefore the Ethics Board dismissed the complaint.

January 2014 – Complaint filed by a concerned citizen concerning alleged racial bias by the head of a city agency and the impact of that bias on certain communities. The Complaint did not cite specific Ethics Code violations. The Complainant was asked to clarify the complaint. The complainant did not respond; therefore the complaint was dismissed.

February 2014 - A Complaint was received that a City Council person used undue influence in the proceeding before a city agency. In the same complaint, there was an allegation that another official acted inappropriately. The Board requested responses from those alleged to have violated the Ethics Code. Following the investigation, the Board concluded that there was no violation of the Ethics Code and voted to dismiss the complaint.

May 2014 – A Complaint was received from a City School employee. The Board does not have jurisdiction over school employees and therefore dismissed the complaint.

May 2014 – A Complaint was received alleging a City Official used Prestige of Office when filing a complaint against an individual in another governmental jurisdiction. The complaint was not properly filed under penalty of perjury and was not refilled correctly so no further action was taken on it.
